

GETTING THE JURY IN SULLIVAN CASE

Missing Veniemen Appear This Morning and Make Satisfactory Explanations.

TWO BANKERS ARE EXCUSED.

Man Who Smiled Receives Attention From Attorney Bailey and He Later Apologizes for Incident.

There was little of interest in the Sullivan murder trial during the forenoon, the matter of the selection of a jury occupying the time, and only a mere start being made when the hour came for noon recess.

L. J. Tauffer and L. T. Larsen, the veniemen whose absence yesterday afternoon caused a postponement until this morning, were in court by 9:30 o'clock and satisfactorily explained to Judge Armstrong why they had not been present yesterday. Mr. Tauffer did not get the summons, he said, until 9:30 o'clock last night, and another Mr. Larsen had been served with the subpoena that was intended for L. T. Larsen.

Mr. Tauffer was excused from serving on the case because he is a city official, being a deputy watermaster and supervisor. Mr. Larsen escaped service because of the fact that he is not a taxpayer. Fifty jurors, or nearly so, will draw an extra $2 each because these two men were not in court at the proper time.

FIRST TWELVE CALLED.

The first twelve men called into the box were Samuel Oldham, L. H. Farnsworth, C. L. Rood, Thomas Alston, E. D. Wickens, E. P. Scoville, M. E. Block, W. F. Adams, Andrew Oakesen, Frank Wiseman, George Ross and Z. S. Derrick. Mr. Farnsworth was examined first, by Mr. Bailey for the defense, and was very quickly challenged for cause, and the objection was sustained. Mr. Farnsworth is cashier of Walker Brothers bank, said that he had very strong prejudice in the matter that would require much evidence to remove.

Samuel Oldham, the next man to be questioned, answered every query satisfactorily to the defense, the interrogations consuming more than a half hour's time. Mr. Oldham is a car barn employee of the Utah Light & Railway company.

Thomas Alston, ex-county recorder, at present an employee of the same company that Mr. Oldham works for, was passed for cause, as were also E. D. Wickens, E. P. Scoville and M. E. Block.

W. F. ADAMS EXCUSED.

W. F. Adams, ex-cashier of the Utah National bank, failed to pass muster with counsel for defense. He stated that he was a warm personal friend of George Ford, a brother to the late Charles S. Ford, whom Sullivan is accused of murdering. George Ford is cashier of the First National bank of Pocatello. A challenge as to Mr. Adams was sustained.

Andrew Oakesen was under examination when the noon recess was announced.

While Juror Oldham was being questioned, Attorney Bailey, appealing to the court and pointing out Mr. Rood sitting next to Mr. Oldham, said:

"If your honor please, I object to that man, treating these proceedings as though they were a laughing matter. This is a solemn occasion and this defendant is entitled to a serious consideration of the case."

Judge Armstrong remarked that he saw no necessity for censuring the person complained of, as there was no conduct on his part to be excepted.

Mr. Bailey later apologized to Mr. Rood for the incident, when the latter had exclaimed that he had smiled at something that had no bearing on the case whatsoever.

COINCIDENCE IN RILEYS

Peculiar Happenings in Police Court In Which Three Men of Same Name Figure.

There was a peculiar coincidence in Rileys yesterday afternoon at police headquarters. Nothing like it will hardly happen for many years if ever.

While Lieut. Dominick Riley, a New York detective, was taking his farewell of Chief of Police Pitt prior to leaving for his post in the metropolis with two prisoners, embezzlers and forgers, John Riley was upstairs in Judge Diehl's court room being tried on the charge of vagrancy. The latter was arrested by Special Officer C. C. Riley. John Riley was found guilty of begging on the streets and was sentenced to serve a term of 40 days at labor in the city jail. Lieut. Dominick Riley went his way with his prisoners and Special Officer C. C. Riley started out in a still hunt for more vagrants.

Now, the strange part of the entire affair is, and there is a touch of sadness to it, Lieut. Dominick Riley, attired in the latest style of clothing, smoking a fine cigar and supplied with plenty of money, is a brother to the poor ragged unfortunate John Riley who is now doing 40 days for begging.

Neither brother knew of the other's presence until last evening when the presence of the other was well known to New York. The brothers have not seen each other for years. John ran away from home for adventure, perhaps, while Dominick remained in New York, secured a position on the police force and worked himself up until he became a detective on McCafferty's staff. Had either known of the other's presence the result would have been that John would now be on his way to New York or walking the streets a free man supplied with money. But Dominick will learn about the peculiar combination of circumstances just as soon as a letter can reach him at New York.

OGDEN SHERLOCK FAILED

Slender Shadows Lady Love and Hated Rival to Salt Lake Only to See Them Married.

Frank Young, a railroad engineer, and Miss Jack, a young woman of Ogden, who were arrested yesterday morning by the police, at the request of the Ogden authorities on a statutory charge, will not have to face a court. They are no longer in jail but are, by this time, probably, in Blingham, and are supremely happy. Sunday the couple left Ogden for Salt Lake. They were followed to this city by a young man who was desperately in love with Miss Jack. He was zealous and turned detective and avenger. He followed Young and Miss Jack to the Metropole, where he learned that they had registered as man and wife. Then he telephoned to the Ogden police and the latter "phoned back to the Salt Lake authorities, asking that they place the couple under arrest. Officer Seager found the young people at the hotel and arrested them. They were locked up in the city jail all day yesterday and last night. It was thought that this morning they would be taken back to Ogden and then the disappointed lover who had played detective would laugh with glee over the trick he had played upon his would-be lady love and hated rival.

But such was not the case. Cupid stepped in and spoiled the whole business. At least for the Ogden Sherlock Holmes.

This morning, Mr. Young, who is a nice looking chap, and who earns $175 a month as an engineer, gravely announced that he and Miss Jack had come to Salt Lake for the purpose of getting married and wanted the ceremony performed as soon as possible. County Clerk Eldridge was sent for, and when he appeared he was armed with a marriage license.

Judge C. C. Diehl was next summoned and lost no time in getting to Chief Pitt's office. A "News" representative and Chief Pitt were "impressed" as to the fact that the knot was tied by Judge Diehl. Young and his young bride were at once released. The happy husband said the best thing he would do would be to buy his bride a new suit and hat, and then they would go to Blingham.

MANS A SWITCHBOARD.

Desk Sergeant at Police Headquarters Full Fledged Operator.

The new police telephone system fully described in the "News" some time ago, is now complete and the desk sergeant at headquarters is almost a full-fledged operator. The phones have been removed from the long desk and are now placed on a small table with the switchboard. The red light system for calling any patrolman on any beat is the next improvement in order and the preliminary work has already been started.

HELD TO DISTRICT COURT.

James Green, who was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl yesterday afternoon on the charge of attempted burglary in the second degree, was this morning ordered held to await the action of the district court on the charge named. In default of $500 bail he was turned over to the tender mercies of Sheriff Emery.

DEMOCRATS GATHER THIS AFTERNOON

Conference On State Policies at Law Offices of Jas. H. Moyle.

JEFFERSON DAY MEETING.

It Will Be Held at Odeon Hall With B. H. Roberts as Principal Orator.

Democratic politics are coming to the fore in all parts of the state, following the spring weather which is warming up a general political thaw.

The fact that the last municipal elections returned Democratic majorities in Logan, Ogden, Brigham City and Provo, has given the party a hope which it has seldom enjoyed within the past five years, and consequently this afternoon's meeting in the law offices of James H. Moyle attracts more than passing notice. It is the summer convention dates and consider the selection of a national committeeman.

A few weeks ago it was thought that Frank B. Stephens or Judge O. W. Powers would surely be national committeeman for the party, as eyes long accustomed to certain leaders could gather in no time the horizons only with extreme difficulty.

NEBEKER'S QUERY.

However, this afternoon marks the definite arrival of a number of such booms into position where they cannot be ignored. The principle taken worked on in his "ghosts" was the power of the "coming generation" to which all leaders had to stand in fear. Comes now Frank Nebeker from Cache county demanding to know what about the old leaders that they must be trotted forth for every race? Mr. Nebeker is a definite, fighting candidate for national committeeman.

John Derr has had bouquets thrown in his direction that carry the best wishes of R. W. Sloan and others with them. Frank B. Stephens has his supporters also, by some have come to the task so well booted and spurred as do the men from Cache who are determined to ride Mr. Nebeker's boom to the last vote.

TODAY'S MEETING.

This afternoon's conference is being held in a general "get together meeting" preceding the active campaigning. Besides the leaders in Salt Lake all county chairmen have been invited, and all members of the state committee and state executive committee. Speaking of the present condition in the party State Chairman L. R. Martineau said today: "You can look for the constant outcropping of new political timber. Young men in every section of the state are coming forward, with a demand for recognition, and you can expect them to receive it."

NEW TIMBER.

"While, of course, I will express no preferences in regard to the contest for position as national committeeman, still I feel that the Cache county movement in favor of Mr. Nebeker is typical of the younger men's pressing forward for recognition. All of the candidates, Mr. Derr, Mr. Stephens, and Mr. Nebeker are sterling Democrats and well known men, and one of them should represent the party with conspicuous ability."

JEFFERSON DAY.

Jefferson Day this year is to be celebrated by the Democrats in a grand fashion, the date for the jubilation being April 8. On that occasion the Odeon hall on North Temple street, will be hired in its entirety for a grand opening ball may be held for the political season. Hon. B. H. Roberts has been invited to make the principal address. Mr. F. B. Stephens, a new political figure, Mr. Wm. M. Roylance, and J. P. Tolson have been invited to respond to toasts. Samuel Newhouse, if he is in the city at all, will also be expected to preside over the celebration.

THOSE PRESENT.

The Democrats present this afternoon are M. F. Cunningham, R. W. Sloan, Geo. D. Smith, J. W. Burton, B. W. Moffat, Joe Stringer, J. E. Haslam, J. E. Clark, John Derr, and L. R. Martineau of Salt Lake; S. S. Smith, of Ogden; J. M. Barnes, of Davis County; Wm. Roylance, of Gilles, of Provo; F. K. Nebeker, A. G. Barber, Evan R. Owen of Cache; W. F. Murray, L. P. Nelson, of Sanpete; E. Erickson, of Mt. Pleasant; Dan E. Shields, of Park City, and P. J. Feinzel and J. Phillips, of Eureka.

STATE LOSES LAND.

S. G. Leigh Wins Contest for 80 Acres Near Enterprise.

S. G. Leigh has won against the State of Utah in a contest over a tract of land of about 80 acres near Enterprise, Utah. The decision was handed down this morning by Register E. D. R. Thompson and Receiver M. M. Keighn of the land office.

The contest involved the state indemnity school section H. B. Both Leigh and the state filed on the ground July 25, 1907, the state filing an hour before noon and Leigh an hour past noon hour. Leigh's selection was at first rejected because it conflicted with the filing of the state. A hearing was called, both sides noted at Cedar City. From county depositions were taken Feb. 10. Although notified the state was never represented at any of the sessions during the taking of testimony and depositions.

Leigh went ahead preparing the land for habitation; built a frame residence upon it and improved it in a number of ways. He settled on the land Jan. 25, 1907, and has lived on it since, being absent only when away for provisions.

In handing down its decision the land office explains Leigh had a right to make an entry 60 days prior to the state and as he showed good faith in improving the land, the state's claim was cancelled. The state's filing was ordered cancelled.

GOVERNOR INSPECTS MILITIA.

Governor Cutler and staff visited the state armory last evening, inspecting H company, the light battery and the First Infantry band. The band gave the party a serenade and the governor made a short address, congratulating the boys on their creditable appearance and the neat way in which they kept their armory equipment. Owing to H company winning first honors at the last encampment, it is known during the current 12 months as "The Governor's Guard."

OPEN TO ENTRY JULY 1.

A part of the Monticello forest reserve, half a township just west of the town of Monticello, San Juan county is to be thrown open for settlement June 1. The date of entry, however, will be July 1. There is plenty of water and good land in the area to be opened and considerable interest is aroused throughout the southeastern portion of the state.

BELIEVES PANAMA CANAL A FAILURE

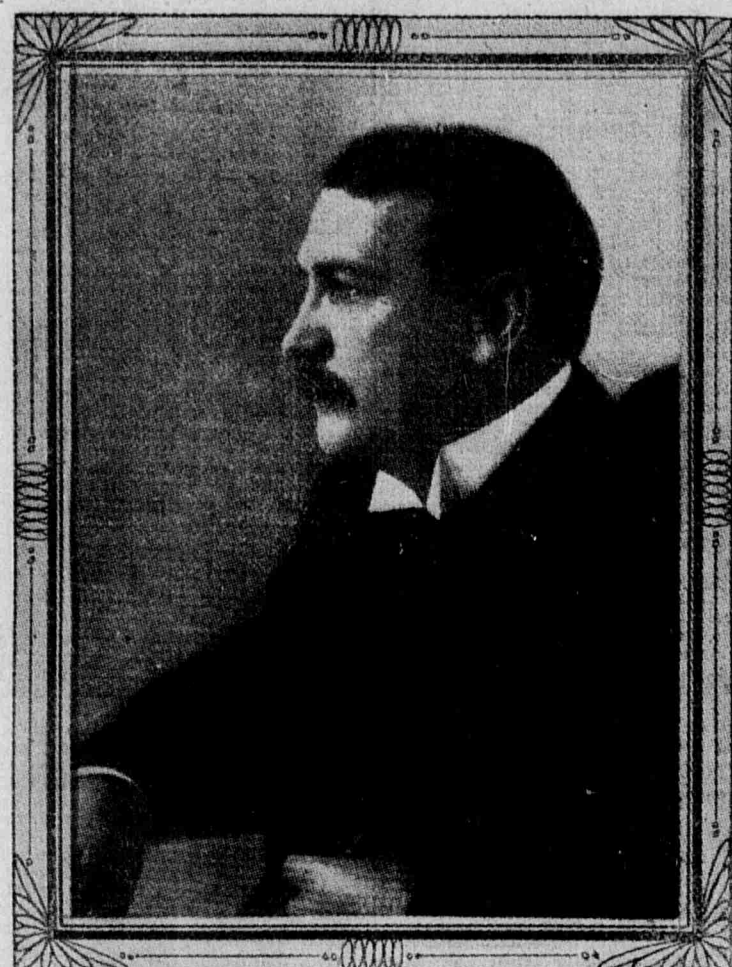

Former Engineer Stevens Says Commerce Will Not Be Benefitted by It.

CHEAPER ROUTES SUGGESTED

Because Coal and Wheat Centers Are Inland, Would Be Better to Ship to Pacific Ports.

New Haven, Conn., March 9.—John F. Stevens, a vice president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, and a former engineer of the Panama canal, has issued a statement regarding the latter enterprise, in which he prophesies a failure of the undertaking.

Mr. Stevens says that the canal will not help the United States with its trade with South America, as practically all of the inhabitants of the southern continent are east of the Andes.

JOHN F. STEVENS.

Former Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal.

Stevens also says that our commercial relations with the islands of the Pacific and the far east will be little benefited. Our coal and wheat centers are inland. Their products have to be started on their way by rail. When once loaded on cars it would not be cheaper to ship to the Atlantic and then ship to the east by the way of the canal than it would be to send directly to the ports on our Pacific coast and then get on board ship.

A LOOK AHEAD.

Furthermore, Mr. Stevens believes that our coal supply is fast diminishing, and that China will be the source of future coal supply. Siberia, he says, will be the wheat country of the future, with India as a close second.

Mr. Stevens maintains that the Panama canal will not meet expenses and will cost more than it is expected to. The date of the finishing of the canal he fixes as January, 1915. The idea of the canal being of great value to us in times of war, since the navy crosses can be quickly sent from one coast to the other, he says is absurd. It would take days for the ships to get around, and during that time hostile shells could have done their work.

Mr. Stevens believes that it would be a far wiser plan of defense to put the money that the canal will cost into a greater navy.

TELEGRAPHERS TAKE ACTION

When, in the course of human events it becomes necessary to answer the cry of "Fabricator!" it is good to have truth on one's side. In a recent issue the "News" announced that the Rio Grande had cut its operators to $60 a month and with 50 cents hospital fees subtracted the wiremen are working for $59.50. The "News" said further that its authority were circulars in the possession of the operators. A dispatch containing these facts, credited to the "News," was sent out of Salt Lake and the Denver Republican of March 7 contained this paragraph: "J. M. Walker, superintendent of telegraph for the Rio Grande, last night denied that the circular referred to in the above dispatch had been issued. 'There is nothing in it,' he said, 'referring to the reduction mentioned. It is true some of the operators have been in conference with us, but not about any reduction of wages.'"

One of the telegraphers in the local situation also denied the authenticity of the circular letter referred to in the dispatch from Salt Lake.

MEETING IN DENVER.

The "News" is in a position to repeat that operators in the employ of the Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western have been cut out. They are working for $59.50; that a committee met with W. S. Martin, assistant general manager of the Rio Grande in Denver, and that circulars describing the situation have been sent to operators throughout the system. It has obtained new information from outside sources and can announce that a committee representing the telegraphers in Denver and armed with written expressions from every operator on the system is placing that stand before the officials of the company. The circulars mentioned by the "News" came from the committee in Denver and laid before the wiremen the proposition made to the men, as represented by the committee, at the time of the conference around Feb. 19. The committee asked for opinions from individuals to obtain a consensus of opinion and this goes to the company as a final step towards arbitration. It is known that written expressions sent in to Denver were anything but favorable to the reduction, so unless a truce is struck at the conference now

OSCAR GROSHALL IS A WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MAN, BEING LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NATIONAL CASH REG- ISTER COMPANY.

He is no more interested in the McDonald Candy Co. than in any industry whose product advertises Salt Lake.

The following letter, therefore, simply expresses his appreciation of a concern known throughout the country:

"THE NATIONAL CASH REGISTER COMPANY,
John H. Patterson, President. Capital Stock, $100,000.
Wm. Plim, 2nd V. P. and Gen. Mgr.
Cable Address: 'Alison, Dayton.'"

DAYTON, OHIO, U. S. A., Feb. 28, 08.

"J. G. McDONALD, Salt Lake, Utah.

"My Dear Sir—I am attending a convention of one hundred point sales agents, and met here the crack salesmen of New York City. About the first question they asked me was 'How has McDonald the nerve to ship his chocolates to New York City?'"

"They tell me their wives will have nothing else, and they are compelled to buy from 3 to 6 pounds a week. They also told me they pay $1.00 a box."

"I thought this information would please you. These men advise me your trade there is rapidly increasing."

Yours truly,
OSCAR GROSHALL."

National Cash Register Office building Where the Convention was Held.

Yes, they pay a dollar a box—but there are smaller sizes at a less price. To see whether these New York men know whereof they speak, take home to your wife a 40c, 60c or 80c box of Rainbow chocolates.

Next time Oscar Groshell goes East he will again be surprised by hearing other comments. McDonald's pure Cocoa, finer in quality than New Yorkers have been accustomed to drinking, is forcing its way into the Eastern centers—the most delicious, refreshing cocoa you ever tasted.

And speaking of cocoa, you might take home also a can of McDonald's cocoa—one quality, one price.
